Dear Madam:

In a conversation with Mr. Henri Weil of the Medallie Art Company recently, he suggested that we should have some of the work of your husband in the collection of medals which is exhibited in our Museum. Mr. Weil very generously offers to have copies made at his own expense if we should write and obtain your permission to have this done.

As you probably know, our purchasing funds are very small, and we are in no position to purchase in the open market. We do, however, desire to have in our collection display the work of American artists, and if you are willing to permit Mr. Weil to have these copies made for us, we should greatly appreciate it.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Mrs. Berge:

At the Spring meeting of our Society, Mr. Henri Weil presented the two plaques which you so generously permitted him to make for our Collection. They make an exceptionally beautiful addition to our Cabinet showing the work of American sculptors in this field; and I wish to assure you of our very warm appreciation of your gift.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
